

The Greeley Company Names Greg Kopulos as President

NEWS RELEASE BY GREELEY

Danvers, MA | February 10, 2022 09:00 AM Eastern Standard Time

The Greeley Company (Greeley), a division of The Chartis Group (Chartis) and a leader in clinical quality and patient safety services and solutions, is pleased to announce that Greg Kopulos has joined the firm as its new President. Kopulos will serve as a member of both Chartis' and Greeley's executive leadership teams.

As President, Kopulos will be responsible for all of Greeley's financial, operational and service areas including Patient Safety and Clinical Compliance, Medical Staff Services Optimization, Physician Education and Interim Staffing Solutions. He will also lead the company's growth strategies and drive Greeley's commitment to materially improve patient safety, quality and outcomes.

"We are delighted to welcome Greg as Greeley's new President," said Ken Graboys, CEO of The Chartis Group. "Greeley has long been an essential resource for leading healthcare organizations who rely on the company's expertise to meet their clinical quality and patient safety objectives. Greg's proven leadership comes at an exciting time as Greeley continues to grow and serve US providers in their most mission-critical areas."

Kopulos joins Greeley from GE Healthcare (GEHC) where he most recently served as Senior Vice President of Strategy focused on leading GEHC's global go-to-market transformation. He held multiple senior leadership roles within GEHC during his 19-year tenure, including Senior Vice President and COO - Global Services, and Chief Operating Officer - US & Canada Region.

"I'm humbled and energized to join a company guided by its mission to serve" said Kopulos. "With the deep expertise of our practice leaders and a proven reputation in the market, Greeley is committed to the advancement of clinical quality and patient safety and will continue to make a material impact for the clients we serve."

Kopulos assumes the role as part of Greeley's and Chartis' growing investment in their Clinical Quality and Patient Safety offerings and capabilities.

- Andrew Resnick, MD, a nationally recognized leader in clinical quality and safety, recently joined Chartis as Chief Medical and Quality Officer. Dr. Resnick comes from Mass General Brigham where he served as Senior Vice President and Chief Quality and Safety Officer at Brigham Health.

- Christian Dankers, MD, recently joined Chartis as Associate Chief Medical and Quality Officer, following his role as an Associate Chief Quality Officer at Mass General Brigham.
- Sheri Winsper, RN, MSN, MHA recently joined Greeley as Vice President of External Peer Review/Clinical Quality & High Reliability, following her role as Senior Vice President, Quality Measurement at the National Quality Forum (NQF).

Prior to his time at GEHC, Kopulos served as Vice President, Business Development for an equipment maintenance insurance firm and Vice President of Finance at a long-term care company. Greg obtained his CPA and started his career with Arthur Andersen providing consulting services to middle market clients.

Kopulos earned a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting from University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. He earned a Master's in Business Administration with International Focus from Marquette University.
